Sisters in Arms, the latest DLC for Craft the World, is a new standalone expansion that will let you meet a new race of dwarves and sharpen your skills. Craft a shelter, search for valuable artifacts, explore new areas on the map, and build more advanced weapons. Many new features have been added to the base game and the DLC, and several puzzles have been rearranged. The dwarven race has cultivated their hard-working nature into a deadly skill that can cut through the toughest trees and stone. The dwarves are the leading experts in metalworking, mining, construction and art. The species has made astonishing progress in the past several decades in developing versatile and efficient mining equipment, but the dwarves never fail to maintain their aesthetic standards. It seems like one of the deadly bosses has set off an ancient alarm in the deepest corner of the dungeons. You will have to journey to the darkest places of the world and destroy the enemies who are roaming the ruins. You will find there a new race of dwarves and learn to become the leader of an unlikely group of dwarves. Key Features:

New Dwarves: These are brave, independent and selfsufficient dwarves who protect the Shelter. They also know how to build great fireplaces, windows, roofs and furniture. Two new, secret modules will be added, as well as a new floor, and an additional secret pillar in the main map.

New Elements: Cobblestones and stones of various sizes have been added to the game. Several new, decorative items of stone have been added as well. ● New Shelter: The wooden floor can be replaced with a stone floor, and a second floor can be added. The addition of a secret pillar in the main map allows you to get an extra advantage from any situation.

More Crafting: The crafting system has been completely reworked. You can now find yourself up against challenging new monsters, chests, and large amounts of resources.

New Weapons: Several new Dwarven weapons have been added, including a two-handed greatsword, an axe, a weapon with curved blades, a sword, a mace, several tools, and a crossbow. ● New Science: Advanced weapons and armor have been added to the game.

New Decor: Several new items of stone have been added, from the simple to the complete dwarven architecture. • New Crafting: The loot has been revised to include a new set of axes, daggers, tools, axes, hammers, m c9d1549cdd
